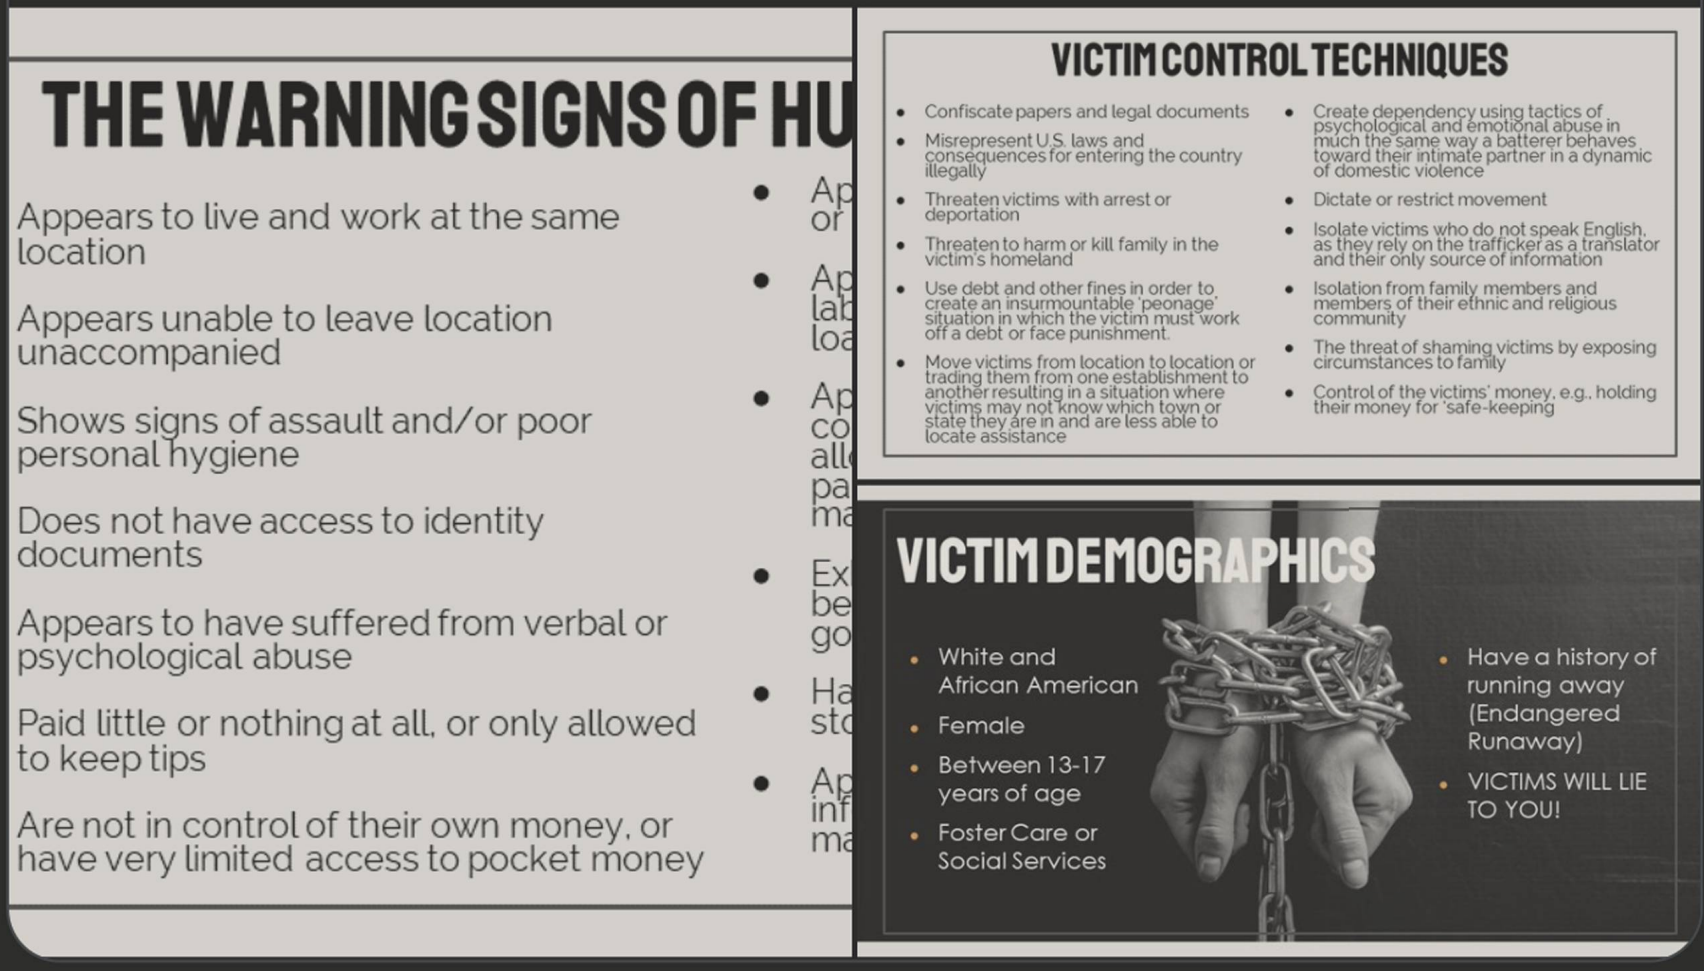
> January is National Human Trafficking Prevention Month. Human trafficking is a public safety issue that affects people of all ages, genders and backgrounds. Help us spread awareness on human trafficking by sharing the key signs to recognize and help victims.



THE WARNING SIGNS OF HU
Appears to live and work at the same location
Appears unable to leave location unaccompanied
Shows signs of assault and/or poor personal hygiene
Does not have access to identity documents
Appears to have suffered from verbal or psychological abuse
Paid little or nothing at all, or only allowed to keep tips
Are not in control of their own money, or have very limited access to pocket money
VICTIM CONTROL TECHNIQUES
Confiscate papers and legal documents
Misrepresent U.S. laws and consequences for entering the country illegally
Threaten victims with arrest or deportation
Threaten to harm or kill family in the victim's homeland
Use debt and other fines in order to create an insurmountable 'peonage' situation in which the victim must work off a debt or face punishment.
Move victims from location to location or trading them from one establishment to another resulting in a situation where victims may not know which town or state they are in and are less able to locate assistance
Create dependency using tactics of psychological and emotional abuse in much the same way a batterer behaves toward their intimate partner in a dynamic of domestic violence
Dictate or restrict movement
Isolate victims who do not speak English, as they rely on the trafficker as a translator and their only source of information
Isolation from family members and members of their ethnic and religious community
The threat of shaming victims by exposing circumstances to family
Control of the victims' money, e.g., holding their money for 'safe-keeping
VICTIM DEMOGRAPHICS
White and African American
Female
Between 13-17 years of age
Foster Care or Social Services
Have a history of running away (Endangered Runaway)
VICTIMS WILL LIE TO YOU!
